

AMERICAN HOST FAMILIES

Wanted

Are you passionate about sharing American culture with international students? Have you always been interested in international cultures? Consider becoming a host family for international students!

The American Scholar Group (ASG) is seeking local families interested in hosting international students for an academic year for our American Scholar Homestay Advantage program. International students will attend local schools and live with families throughout the school calendar year.

ANNUAL STIPEND STARTING AT US$6,000/HOST-STUDENT

WHERE DO STUDENTS COME FROM?

ASG international students come several east and southeast Asian countries such as:

- China
- Vietnam
- South Korea
- Thailand

 As new recruitment channels are established, more countries will be added to the list.

HOW DO I SIGN UP?

Are you interested in hosting an international student?

It begins with a screening process that includes:

- A house visit
- An in-person interview
- Application and background check.

Once the process is complete, ASG will start matching potential students to your family!
